

INCIDENT: Two men arrested for enticement of a minor over the internet

WHEN: Monday, June 8
Wednesday, June 17

PEOPLE INVOLVED: Scott Alan McQuigg, 45, Boise
Daniel Aaron Cooper, 45, Boise

DETAILS: Ada County Sheriff's detectives have arrested two Boise men who used the internet to entice teenagers to meet them for sex.

On Monday, June 8, Scott Alan McQuigg, 45, of Boise, talked online with a detective who was posing as a teenage girl. McQuigg spoke about his intent to have sexual contact with the girl and arranged to meet her at a public place. When McQuigg arrived at the location, he was taken into custody. McQuigg was booked into the Ada County Jail on a charge of sexual enticement of a minor over the internet. He remains in custody on a $100,000 bond.

On Wednesday, June 17, Daniel Aaron Cooper, 45, of Boise talked online with a detective posing as a 15-year-old boy. Cooper spoke about his intent to have sexual contact with the boy and arranged to meet him at a local residence. When Cooper arrived at that location, he was taken into custody. Cooper was booked into the Ada County Jail on a charge of sexual enticement of a minor over the internet. He was arraigned on the charge today and is being held on a $100,000 bond.

Both of these arrests are the result of work by the Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force. The Ada County Sheriff's Office receives ICAC grant money to help fund these investigations that are conducted on an ongoing basis.
